Study of Health Work Abroad Made by Miss Ehrenfeld Back From World Congress

Foreign Methods Observed by Health Director of Community Health and Civic Assn.

MANY PLACES VISITED

An enriching experience with plenty of thrills is reported by Miss Rose Ehrenfeld, director of Health Service of the Community Health and Civic Association at Ardmore, upon her recent return from Dresden, Germany, where she attended the International Hygiene Exhibition and World Health Congress as a delegate of the American Public Health Association.

"The exhibits of Governments and Public Health Societies of twenty-five foreign countries, the League of Nations and International Labor Bureau were of special interest," Miss Ehrenfeld said. "In Dresden the delegation was received by officials of the Province of Saxony and president of the exposition and inspected the new Hygiene Museum under the guidance of scientists in charge."

The delegation attended the Royal Sanitary Institute at Margate, England, and were received in London by the Ministry of Health of Great Britain, also at the University School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine.

"At the University of Vienna there was a special lecture for the American delegates by the chief of the Austrian Ministry of Health—also in Prague by the Minister of Health of the Czechoslovakian Republic. In Brussels and Berlin we were officially received by the Ministry of Health and entertained at dinner in the old Town Hall, Munich, by the Bavarian Government, city of Munich, its health and medical departments."

Public health work in France was explained at the National Department of Hygiene in Paris, and, while visiting the Pasteur Institute, the delegation placed a wreath on the tomb of Pasteur. They visited Leysin in the Swiss Alps and observed the work of the International Clinic for treatment of surgical tuberculosis.

The delegation was received by the health section of the League of Na-

Mutilators of Penn Valley Signs Fined

Two West Manayunk boys, arrested by Lower Merion Police for defacing and destroying the ornamental signs of the Penn Valley Association at Mary Waters Ford Road and State Roads and other points, were fined damages of $25 and costs each by Magistrate C. Howard Meredith, of Bryn Mawr, on August 18. The youths, Joe Basil, of 42 Madison Avenue, and Frank Augustine, 216 Jefferson Avenue, both of West Manayunk, were charged with malicious mischief.

No Mail Delivery

All post offices on the Main Line and the Bala-Cynwyd office will be closed on Monday, Labor Day. No delivery of mail will be made that day. Dispatching of mail will go on as usual.

Visit Gardens

Members of the Garden Club visited the Joseph Widener gardens at Elkins Park last week. They were conducted through the gardens and conservatories by the assistant head gardener.

Playground Team Beats Kensington

Borough Playground Engages in Outside Competition For First Time.

For the first time in its history the Narberth Playground had competition from the outside on Wednesday afternoon, "Play Day" at the Community Playground. The afternoon was also marked by the presentation of prizes by the Hon. Fletcher W. Stites following a brief talk on the history of the playground. Lantern night ceremonies, scheduled for Wednesday night, were postponed to Thursday night on account of rain.

In the competitive activities, the Narberth Playground Baseball team won from the Kensington Playground, American Legion semi-finalists, in a very exciting game by the score of 4-3, while the volley ball team lost to the girls from the same playground. The playground basketball team composed of Thomas, Richardson, Beiser, Lane and Torchianna, defeated the Ardmore Y. M. C. A. team by a 32-29 score. Bryn Mawr won the tennis match, 3 to 2.

Narberth B. and L. to Open Its Fiftieth Series of Stock On September 4th

The vacation season is about over, business conditions are improving and the prospects are getting brighter each day for every one. The banks report an increase in deposits in this vicinity which shows that people are putting something away for the proverbial "rainy day."

The Narberth Building and Loan Association, which has been in existence for more than twenty-three years, by its conservative policy has withstood the panicky times during the last year, and is maturing its stock as the series come due. At the present time there are four series maturing each year, two in the long term and two in Voters, Attention!

The last chance for borough voters who wish to vote in the November elections and who are not enrolled on the books of the Registry Assessors to register will be on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 2 and 3, between the hours of 11 A. M. and 4 P. M. and 7 to 10 P. M. Those living in the First District should go to Elm Hall (the fire house); those in the Second District to Cook Brothers' store, 104 Essex Avenue, and those in District No. 3 to the Boy Scout House at the Station on the south side.

Narberth School to Open September 8th

Friday and Saturday Before Set For Enrollment of New Pupils.

Sessions at the Narberth Public School will begin on Monday, September 8, according to an announcement by W. J. Drennen, new supervising principal, this week.

The parents of children entering school for the first time this fall, either the kindergarten, first grade or other grades (new residents) are requested by Mr. Drennen to enroll their children on Friday, September 5, from 4 to 6 P. M. or on Saturday, September 6, from 2 to 4 P. M. at the school office. A vaccination and birth certificate or some other evidence of age must be presented.

Teachers of the Narberth School will attend the Montgomery County Teachers' Institute at Norristown from September 2 to 6. Miss Frances B. Fricke will conduct the community singing at the elementary school grades session on Friday afternoon, September 5. The institute will conclude with a mass meeting in the Grand Theatre, Norristown, on Saturday morning.

Brookline Captures Narberth Playoff

Four-Base Clout by Logan Gives Visitors Decisive Win Monday.

POWELL STARS AT SHORT

By John Uberti.

In a playoff Monday of the 5-5 tie staged at Brookline field last week, Phil Logan, 1931 prospect for the Chicago Cubs, repeated his robust hitting deeds of that night by meeting a Townsend pitch for a long hard-hit drive out into Windsor Avenue in centre-field for his second home run of the series which resulted in a 5-3 defeat for Narberth. The blow coming in the last inning of the game with a pal aboard after Narberth had tied the score at 2-2 resulted in the final count of 5-3, a run having a moment previously dashed over the disc on a passed ball.

Following a brilliant performance on the hill during the first five innings of the fray Charles Townsend bucked up under high-pressure swatting when the Brookline Square Club essayed a pulsating, rip-roaring attack that gave them six hits in the last two innings of play. Prior to the sixth frame, Townsend had held the foemen hitless with ease, but the damage wrought by the visitors in the waning moments of the game equalled the devastation caused by the champions throughout the evening.

Ray Young, last man in the batting order for Narberth, was the only spark of life throughout the game with the mace, while "Howdy" Powell, the juvenile shortstop from the Narberth Junior team, displayed flashy plays on the sward. A double and a single, both of which developed into the scoring of a run on each occasion, found Young batting .667. Heckle and Humphries both appeared before the audience four times, but were officially credited with two trips at bat for a mark of .500. Heckle's bid for a hit in the first frame and a single in the sixth, interspersed with a pass and a wild-traveling toss from Jimmy Connor, victorious hurler, gave the star outfielder this figure. Harvey clicked an infield single in his first trip at bat, then struck out and in his last two appearances walked both times.

FORE AND AFT

The week of September 1 will be opened at the Hedgerow Theatre with the restoration of Molnar's "Lilium" to the repertoire on Tuesday night. This study in seven scenes of the uncertain ego of a merry-go-round barker who seeks to establish his certainty by means of blatant defiance will be given with Harry Bellaver again in the title role and Miriam Phillips as the bewildered Julie.

On Wednesday George Bernard Shaw's Balkan comedy of the stupidities, rather than the vicissitudes of war will be given with Ferd Nofer as the bumptious Bluntschli and Dudley Vaughan as Raina. "The Playboy of the Western World," by J. M. Synge, will be repeated on Thursday evening, and Chiarelli's "The Mask and the Face" will be the program for Friday, September 5. Jasper Deeter will assume the role of Count Grazia for the first time at this performance, while Kay Roma will again repeat her characterization of the kaleidoscopic countess.

Donald Corley's "Limelight" will be the play for Saturday evening. It is to be noted that this play marks the return of Takashi Ohta to the Hedgerow Theatre as scenic artist. He is a young Japanese artist who survives from the Provincetown group and was first known to Hedgerow when he designed the sets for these players' production of Leacock's "Cast Up by the Sea." He is likewise the author of "The Golden Wind," the allegory of a young Chinese idealist. Whether working, however, in the medium of words or of the brush he does his best creation in the field of the imagination, as may be seen from the sets for "Limelight" and for "Cast Up by the Sea," which latter will soon be redesigned by the Hedgerow Theatre.

Tonight's show at Hedgerow is A. A. Milne's delightful comedy, "The Romantic Age," with Frances Torchiana and Ferd Nofer in the leads, and tomorrow night's is Synge's Irish comedy, "The Playboy of the Western World."

Rapid Transportation Changes

Those of us who go to our city offices behind a chauffeur are missing a wonderful sight which can be enjoyed daily by commuters on the Main Line and Schuylkill Valley branches of the Pennsylvania Railroad. In brief, the whole map of a city is being changed, and colossal improvements are racing to completion beneath our eyes.

A couple of months ago steam trains labored over the hills and vales of Cynwyd and Conshohocken—now swift electric trains glide silently along. In another few weeks these suburban trains will go over a new bridge and into a special electric train subway to the heart of the city, later to connect with a vast system of underground passageways through the centre of town.

A great new station is taking shape at West Philadelphia, through which fast trains will go to other parts of the country. Modern buildings on Market Street will replace the ugly Chinese wall. A new boulevard will reach from Billy Penn to the lands west of the river.

It is a real thrill to watch these changes from our seat in the train. The work should be a source of interest and pride to every commuter in the suburbs, particularly to the Main Line, where the first electric trains many years ago presaged this tremendous improvement.

The Narberth Country Club

And now Narberth has two outdoor amusement centres. The tennis club passed out, and its courts began to wash away and become weed-covered. The Recreation Board heeded public opinion and added two splendid free tennis courts to the community playground's growing amusement facilities. And now private enterprise has come along and for good measure provides seven tennis courts and eighteen holes of miniature golf on the tennis club grounds. All that is needed now is a swimming pool. Who will be the first to step forward?

Plans Complete For
Montgomery Co. Fair

With plans and preparations completed, everything was in readiness today for the opening of the greater Montgomery County Fair which will be held six days and six nights at Hatfield, beginning Labor Day.

Never before in the history of the association has such an extensive and elaborate program of amusements, entertainment and exhibitions been arranged. The program outlined this season places the Montgomery County Fair on a par with any other county exhibition in the State.

So carefully have the directors of the organization planned the annual agriculture exhibition this year that there will be entertainment appealing to everyone's desires. A number of features include a daily dog show, large modern midway, horse show, harness and running horse races, automobile races, flower show, home economics exhibition, poultry and cattle exhibitions, pet stock, sheep and swine exhibitions, farm produce, cavies and pigeons.

Every day of the great fair will produce a new feature and the program of the society circus, a real Western rodeo, will be changed twice daily. This twelve-act circus will form the night entertainment before the grandstand and is an innovation to the Montgomery Fair.

Labor Day, the first of the exhibition, will produce many forms of entertainment, foremost of which will be the splendid horse racing card. Seven harness and running races have been booked by the speed secretary, Walter E. Baker, including a steeplechase and riding exhibitions by Chester Springs girls. In addition to the fine racing card, the opening day throng will witness the first performance of the society circus, dog show, exhibits and the contest between the most clever horse-shoe throwers in the county.

Tuesday has been allotted to the children and boys and girls from Montgomery, Chester, Philadelphia, Bucks and Chester Counties will participate in the extraordinary program of athletics. "Uncle Bob" Sherwood, popular radio entertainer and the only surviving member of P. T. Barnum's original circus troupe, will amuse the children for nearly an hour.

Despite the recent drought in this section, quite a number of entries have been received for exhibitions in the flower show which will be staged Wednesday. Horse racing and the daily performance of the rodeo will comprise the mid-week program.

Montgomery County's judiciary has been invited to attend the big Thursday program of harness and running races which promises to attract the largest Thursday attendance in the history of the fair.

JESS IN FUN

The Editor Goes Haywire
Local Happenings.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Deadwood Methodist Church held an old-fashioned social last evening at the home of its ugly president, Mrs. Lucius Flatfoot. Very few members were present. Charles Fathead attempted to sing several vocal selections, and the ladies' band mutilated three patriotic numbers. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wantwit, Charlie Looney, Evangeline Crosseye, Mr. and Mrs. Coldslaw, Harry Eggplant and family, Mrs. Holder and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dogwood and Elmer Saltens. An awful time was had by all.

Mrs. Albermarle Jones, of Back Alley, Rottenford, announces the engagement of her homely daughter Kathrine to Mr. Spinach Smith, of the same place. Miss Katherine Jones' many friends are congratulating her most heartily. Most of them thought she would never get a man, even a street-sweeper.

Charlie Diggs, popular garbage collector in central Deadwood, has been elected chairman of the Finance Committee of the local Wolfs' Club.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Deadwood Democratic Club last Wednesday evening Horace Henderson was chosen president for the coming year. Mr. Henderson has been prominent in local political circles for years. He stole six thousand dollars from the county on the Big-fellow Boulevard construction job last fall.

The Charity Committee of the Chamber of Commerce announces that three thousand dollars have been collected for the hospital fund. The hospital will probably receive at least three hundred of it.

The Reverend Josiah Splitsmith will preach at 11 o'clock Sunday morning in the chapel of the Deadwood Methodist Church. His sermon subject will be "Hope." Knowing him as we do, we kinder hope he will be sober.

George Hooper is going to Canada for his vacation. Mrs. Hooper and the children will remain in Deadwood.

Next Thursday evening there will be a benefit performance at the Strand Theatre for the blind fund. The theatre, managed by the irritable Mr. William Hargreaves, will retain ninety-nine and forty-four hundredths of the proceeds.

George Johnson, popular Main Street insurance and real estate man, spoke at the Kiwanis luncheon yesterday noon. His subject was "The Estimation of Risks." George is a risk himself. He owes this publication two hundred dollars for an advertisement which has now run for two years.

The No-Hope Hospital reports the recent death of Hendrick Joline. He is survived by his wife and two sons, all of whom will be better off without him. He never did a good day's work in his life.

Albert Hafwit returned from State College yesterday. He says that he is going to work now. It's about time.

There was an important meeting of the Mayor and Council Monday evening. Three gallons of beer were consumed. Looks as if the "Miscellaneous Items" part of the budget will have to be increased next year.

No speakeasies in Deadwood have been raided and closed for the last six months. Chief of Police Wantsome has a new sedan.

The sheriff drove over to Deadwood yesterday morning. Ed Biggs and Fats House were suddenly called away on business.

The Board of Education met at School Number 4 Tuesday evening. Plans for the coming year were adopted. Our suggestion is that the members of the board be given an opportunity to attend a few classes.

Eddie Swanson died at his late home yesterday evening. The whole community is in mourning. Eddie was not rich in the material things of this world. And he owed everybody money.

degrees on Sunday to a high of 84 on Monday. Saturday's highest mark was 67 degrees.

Funeral For Frank Mathers of Wynnewood Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Frank H. Mathers, owner of the Mathers Fuel Corporation of Philadelphia, who died at his home,
369 Penn Road, Wynnewood, suddenly last Friday night at the age of 63. The cause of his death was given by his physician as a heart attack.

Mr. Mathers was born on September 25, 1867, at 1120 South Tenth Street. He entered his father's coal business when he was 15 years old.
He became his father's partner in the business eight years later and sole owner after his father's death.

He was a member of the Manufacturers' Club, the Kiwanis Club, the West Philadelphia Business Men's Association, Rolling Green Country Club,
Lu Lu Temple Country Club and several Masonic bodies. He was also active in church work and for years was associated with the Chapel of the Mediator, Fiftieth and Spruce Streets,
Philadelphia.

Surviving him are his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Richardson and Mrs. Jeanette Woolston.

Chevrolet Announces New Price Reductions

Price reductions of $40 on all sport models in the Chevrolet six-passenger car line were announced last week by H. J. Klingler, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet
Motor Company.

The models affected are the sport roadster, which is now priced at $515; the sport coupe, reduced to $615; the club sedan, now $625, and the special sedan, $685. All models formerly were priced $40 higher.

This latest move of the company brings the price range of the Chevrolet Six to less than the range of the four-cylinder Chevrolet at the time of the changeover at the close of 1928. At that time the four was priced from $495 to $715, while the nine different passenger models in the six-cylinder line today range from $495 to only $685, following this latest reduction.

Fu-Manchu and Will Rogers Comedy Narberth Treats

On Friday and Saturday, August 29 and 30, the Narberth Theatre will show Warner Oland in the "Return of Fu-Manchu," the sequel to "The Mysterious Dr. Fu-Manchu." Audiences still remember the amazing character portrayal by Mr. Oland in the initial film of the Oriental villain, and will be thrilled again as this super-fiend returns from apparent death to menace the lives of those he hates. Jean Arthur, Neil Hamilton, O. P. Heggie and William Austen are again cast in the same roles as those in which they excelled in the previous record of the Chinese doctor's crimes.

Will Rogers, America-famous wit and philosopher, carries on a peace conference of his own in his new rollicking comedy, "So This Is London," to be seen on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 1, 2 and 3. Without a doubt the screen has never produced a more highly hilarious comedy than this Fox production that stars the idol of Broadway, Hollywood Boulevard and Centre Corners, Iowa. Will wears spats, a fore-and-aft hunting cap and sings. Assisted by the capable Irene Rich, Frank Albertson and Maureen O'Sullivan, Will lassoes your heart, corals your laughs and brands you as a "Rogers fan" from now on. And who isn't?

Victor McLaglen, star of "What Price Glory," "The Cock-Eyed World" and "Hot for Paris," will be seen in his most recent success, "On the Level," on Thursday, September 4. "Vic," while one of the homeliest men in Hollywood, has a fan following that can not be excelled by any of his colleagues with an adonis profile, for he is likeable—he is human. "On the Level" concerns his rise from a laborer to a position of wealth and influence as a big contractor. How he is duped by a beautiful woman into betraying the pals of his more lowly days forms the central theme of the picture. Lilyan Tashman, the siren, wins much applause with her capable reading of the role.

The Narberth Theatre is happy to announce that with the opening of the new 1930-31 season it will show in the near future the outstanding photoplay successes of this new and greater era of movie entertainment. Such superb productions as "Let Us Be Gay" with Norma Shearer, "The Big House" with Chester Morris and Wallace Beery, "Romance" with the exotic and alluring Greta Garbo, and the motion picture "smash" hit of all times, "All Quiet on the Western Front," are only several of the superlative studio products booked for your enjoyment.

Egyptian Installs M. L.'s First Grandeur Screen

A Grandeur Screen—the first on the Main Line—is being installed at the Egyptian Theatre, Cynwyd, ready for use on or before the theatre's Anniversary Week, which will be the week of September 8. Films to be shown that week will be Joan Crawford in "Our Blushing Brides," Ruth Chatterton in "A Lady of Scandal," and the great crime melodrama—"The Unholy Three."

Grandeur films, displayed on P. J. Lawler's theatre's new large screen, will enable the audience to grasp more of the detail that the producers intended, and more of the character mannerisms of the performers.

The possibilities of the Grandeur Screen have been worked out in New York laboratories and theatres, and the management of the Egyptian Theatre waited until they were reasonably well perfected before installing its larger screen and making other changes in its projection facilities.

Greater realism, more breadth, and even an illusion of depth, or third dimension, are claimed for the talking screen's latest improvement, according to Joseph Conway, managing director of the Egyptian.

share with an entrance fee of twenty-five cents a share, so that the first payment is at the rate of $1.25 per share, with money payments thereafter of one dollar. When the amount paid in, added to the earnings, equals $20, the stock matures, and at the present time this takes about eleven years and four or five months.

In the short-term series the monthly payments are two dollars a share, plus twenty-five cents a share entrance fee, or $2.25 per share the first month and two dollars a month thereafter, and it takes about six years and six or seven months to mature.

The Building and Loan idea of saving by making monthly payments appeals to a great many people and as the earnings are over eight per cent. it is one of the best investments any one can make.

The money received in the association is invested in approved first and second mortgages and on stock loans to the members of the association, and as loans are subject to the approval of a committee of directors and then must be approved by two-thirds of the board, the security is on properties in Narberth and the nearby vicinity and is of the highest possible character.

The Board of Directors of the Narberth Building and Loan Association will meet in Elm Hall on Thursday evening, September 4, from 7 until 9, daylight saving time, to receive dues, explain the Building and Loan idea and take subscriptions in the new fiftieth series.

'Floradora Girl,' Tale of '90's, Coming to Cynwyd

"The Devil's Holiday," Nancy Carroll's latest picture playing at the Egyptian Theatre, Cynwyd, this Thursday and Friday, is a typical play of modern American life. It is a study in the comparative characters of those who live in the big urban centres of the Middle West and those who gain their livelihood from the rich farmlands nearby. Among those in the cast with the star of "Sweetie" and "Honey" are Hobart Bosworth, Paul Lukas, ZaSu Pitts, Morton Downey, Phillips Holmes and James Kirkwood.

In "The Light of Western Stars," playing at the Egyptian Theatre this Saturday, are Richard Arlen and Mary Brian. It is one of Zane Grey's most popular stories. A Lupino Lane comedy is announced as an accompanying attraction.

The much-praised "talkie" revival of "The Floradora Girl," with Marion Davies in the stellar role, will appear, with its comedy, songs, dances and old-time costumes, at the Egyptian next Monday and Tuesday. The old family album will be brought to life in this story of the Gay Nineties. Among the songs featured will be "Sweet Adeline" and "In the Good Old Summer-time," sung by a bicycling chorus.

"Buddy" Rogers' tuneful romance-comedy, "Safety in Numbers," is coming to Cynwyd's playhouse next Wednesday and Thursday. It is a breezy and highly amusing tale of a young man who is about to inherit $350,000.00. Among features of the performance are seven new songs, and five leading ladies: Carol Lombard, Josephine Dun, Virginia Bruce, Geneva Mitchel and Kathryn Crawford.

Norma Shearer in "Let Us Be Gay" is scheduled to appear at the Egyptian next week-end. Marie Dressler has a leading part. An added attraction is "Below Zero," a Laurel and Hardy comedy.

Downingtown Beats Narberth, 2-0, Away

Borough Clan Shut Out With Two Hits in Fray Last Friday.

WAS A RETURN GAME

By John Uberti.

The atmosphere was not the only thing that was drab and gusty at Downingtown last Friday, as those clever country boys dealt the Narberth champions a keen thrashing, almost handing them a no-hit setback for the evening. The Downingtown Field Club outbit the champions four hits to two in their 2-0 triumph at the Downingtown High School field.

Merle Brown, once of the Pittsburgh Pirates and late of the Trenton Club, was a riddle the boroughites could not solve. Merle, who at present is a coach at the Downingtown High School, pitched high-grade ball to the slipping monarchs of the Main Line League, and, up until the seventh inning, not a borough man had secured a hit. In fact, with the exception of the sixth frame, when a man reached base by fortune of an error, only three men faced Brown through the contest.

Circling the field there was a low wire fence which enclosed the diamond, behind which flowed the waters of the Brandywine Creek. Resting only two hundred feet from the plate those champions would have marked a new page in the annals of Downingtown baseball history had they been on their customary hitting spree instead of being gripped by an invisible thwarting hand. Many an aerial blow which the adversary retrieved at the Narberth ball park would have soared over this barrier into the waters adjacent had the Davismen been in a hitting mood. But Merle Brown hurled adamantly, fanning nine players and only placing men on in the seventh, but who failed to score.

Objectionable Decisions

Narberth met with numerous decisions of the umpire in this game to which even the country fans showed their disapproval. As an official umpire was unavailable at Downingtown, a civilian was called upon to announce the decisions, but smoke from his lusty cigar which at times almost had Charley Townsend groggy, evidently forayed a smoke screen before his keen vision. Once in the fifth when Townsend gained first due to Brown's momentary wildness and reached the key-stone on Mento's overthrow, the umpire ruled Charley out at home as he walked in leisurely, the ball having nestled in the stands as it was returned from the outfield. Campbell recovered the ball and threw home to Mento, who touched Townsend for the out. Rules of the game indicate that a ball which is thrown into the stands gives the runner access to an extra base, but the Downingtown Club claimed that ground rules on that field differ and bear an exception to the rule.

Again in the last frame when Manager Davis went to bat for Stewart, there arose a wave of antagonism when the pilot of the borough club was pronounced out for batting without first introducing himself. This decision, which is in accordance with the book of rules, met with an uprising from the Narberth players, but did not change the situation.

Message Bottle Cast Into Atlantic By St. Davids Man, Returned to Him After 4000-Mile Journey

A curious story of a 4000-mile trip made by a message in a bottle, and tugged this way and that by the Atlantic tides almost a quarter of the way around the globe, has been revealed by Samuel K. Reeves, of St. Davids, vice president of Paul S. Reeves & Company.

A letter, post-marked with the name of an obscure station in the British West Indies, completed the story of the Odyssey of the note which, in a spirit of shipboard fun Mr. Reeves had cast into the ocean from the deck of the S. S. Saturnia ten months before.

In that time the message had traveled 4000 miles, had crossed the equator and grounded at last on the sanded beach of the Bay of West Caicos, on one of the tiny islands that dot the waters below the Windward Passage.

Mr. Reeves, his wife, Mrs. Josephine Lippincott Reeves, and their son, Jay B. Lippincott Reeves, were bound for Italy on the liner, where the former had some business to transact for his firm.

The idle shipboard conversation at the dinner table had turned to the curiosities of tides and currents, and in a spirit of fun Mr. Reeves procured an empty bottle—one that had contained rare Italian Chianti, if the truth need be known—wrote a message, sealed the flask and tossed it into the sea.

The message read: "This bottle was cast into the placid water of the North Atlantic Ocean, about 150 miles west of Gibraltar at 7 o'clock in the evening. If the person who finds it will send it to the address as given, I will send them $10."

"S. K. REEVES, '1301 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. A."

The message was written on the stationery of the Philadelphia Club, of which Mr. Reeves is a member, and to the club it was to be returned. The date was July 2, 1929.

Down the African coast the bottle bobbed its way, across the Atlantic in the neighborhood of the equator, probably, then in the backwash of the Gulf Stream to Grand Turk's Island in the British West Indies, a point that even the International Postal Union would have difficulty in finding, first off, unless supplied with a monumental postal gazette.

Recently Mr. Reeves received the following letter, couched in the utterly imperturbable language of a British resident of the island:

"S. K. Reeves, Esq., 'Dear Madam: 'I found on the morning of April 23, 1930, on the Bay of West Caicos, a bottle containing this paper enclosed. I hereby am sending you same; paper stated a $10 reward would be given the finder. Please make a reply. Meanwhile, I remain, 'Yours, 'ALFRED T. COX, 'Blue Hills, Five Cays, Grand Turk's Island.'"

Mr. Reeves promptly wrote a check to the order of Alfred T. Cox, and dispatched it to the distant sub-equatorial island.

The message from the British subject was addressed to "Madam," Mr. Reeves said, because he had enclosed his wife's card in the bottle. The original letter, slightly discolored by condensation of moisture on the inside of the bottle because of the varying temperatures through which it had passed, was clearly legible.

The story of the trip made by the bottle has been referred to the Hydrographic office of the Navy Department for tabulation. Similar tests have been conducted by that department with sealed kegs to ascertain the direction and velocity of ocean currents.

Lighting Cigarette Sets Auto On Fire

Peculiar accidents are among those reported by the Lower Merion police since last Friday. On Tuesday an automobile caught fire at Mill Creek and Williamson Roads, Gladwyne, when the driver, Alan C. Simpson, lighted a cigarette after filling his gas tank. He had run out of gas and in refilling spilled some on his hands and on the car. The gasoline caught fire, burning his hands and doing some damage to the car. The Merion Fire Company of Ardmore responded to the alarm.

the umpire, it must be duly asserted that those country lads outplayed the Main Line champions in many phases of the game. Brown held the edge over Townsend in strikeouts as he felled nine of the boroughites, while seven surrendered on strikes to Townsend. The Downingtown outfield was a picture of vivacity, the nimble running of the fielders resulting in many sparkling putouts.

The Narberth outfield, on the other hand, played slovenly ball, running about wildly and failing to come anywhere in contact with the prodigious swipes that should have been pulled in.

When four men of the Narberth lineup faced Merle Brown in the sixth frame, the champions considered it a feat of might, for prior to that stanza only three men appeared before this moundsman each inning. But even in that incident of the sixth, when Stewart gained first on an error, the Davis-men failed to tally. The Downingtown Field Club performed in the fashion of pachyderms in the seventh when they retired the boroughites after they had succeeded in entering the hitting column for the first and only time that evening.

Narberth Fails to Score

When the Narberth Club countered with two bingles in the seventh inning, they foiled the attempts of Merle Brown to garner a no-hit victory. The fielding of the foemen was mostly instrumental in the curbing of the league monarchs in this frame. Mulligan was retired on strikes, but Gilfillan singled to right-field. On Humphries' scratch double every indication of a spirited spurt was in view, but fine work in the field ended a rather exciting inning. Townsend tapped a grounder to Spazziano, who relayed the ball to the plate to oust Gilfillan dashing homeward. Young also followed the same procedure as Humphries was nipped at the plate on Campbell's speedy return of Ray's hit.

In their last stand in the eighth, the Davis-men fell in order. Reynolds acted as a pinch-hitter for Rubincam, but watched three strikes go by.

Haeger followed suit and sat beside Reynolds on the bench and Manager Davis went in to pinch-hit for Stewart. As soon as the first ball was pitched over the plate, Mento ran out and advised the umpire of the appearance of Davis, who had failed to announce himself prior to batting in the pinch. Again the umpire chirped in that the man was out, and out he went.

Westerners Score in Fifth

When Downingtown and Narberth met prior to the start of activities both teams introduced a coincident feature in the record of games for the year for the respective clubs. Both clubs boasted twenty-one wins out of thirty-two games in independent baseball. That spurt in the fifth, however, gave the Westerners an additional topic of interest to chat over, their main interest being that they not only defeated the champions of the Main Line League, but also vanquished the club that twice earned victories over Herb Stein's nine. Coatesville twice took victories over Downingtown.

Fahey walked to start the fifth and immediately came home on Mento's bold swat for three bases which went past Rubincam in right-field. On Doto's single to left-field Mento scored and moved up on Donato's sacrifice hit. Spazziano then forced Doto, Townsend to Humphries to Young, Wando hit to Mulligan and was out.

The FIRESIDE

With Labor Day approaching to mark the end of summer, the borough will soon settle down to its fall activities instead of the numerous house parties at vacation homes and trips about this country and Europe, that monopolize the social news of any summer. Now the news is nearly all of families returning from the shore or mountains. Sons and daughters will soon be leaving for school and college. Fall weddings will start taking place. In a word, autumn will have set in in earnest, and Narberth will be busy with new activities.

Although this is the time when most people are coming home, our hard-worked society editor, Mrs. Anne Morgan Roberts, left last week to enjoy her vacation at Niagara Falls and Toronto. After Labor Day she expects to spend a week visiting relatives in Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bailey, Jr., who with their son, Mr. Arthur Bailey, and their two daughters, Miss Eileen Bailey and Miss Kathleen Bailey, of Merion and Essex Avenues, have spent this month at Ocean City, will return home after Labor Day.

The Misses Eleanor and Kathryn Burgess, of Hampden Avenue, left on Monday for a week's stay in Manchester, Vermont. Before returning on September 7 they will visit Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Nye, of Forest Avenue, spent several days last week in Wildwood, stopping at the Sunderland.

Dr. LeRoy A. King, of Shirley Road, who has been spending a week at the home of Mrs. King's brother, Mr. William Hoffman, of Beaver Falls, Pa., will return Saturday by way of Lock Haven together with his son Joseph, who has been visiting at Beaver Falls for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Balfour Barclay, of Montgomery Avenue, are making a four weeks' tour of California and the northwestern States, expecting to return home the middle of next month.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Albrecht, Jr., of Maplewood Avenue, left on Wednesday to attend a convention of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery in San Francisco. Following the convention they will stop over in a number of Western cities, where they will be entertained by the retail florists, and return on the fifteenth of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leins, of Meeting House Lane, are attending the FTD convention with Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht. Mrs. Leins will be remembered as Miss Marie Albrecht.

Mrs. Minnie Mapes, of 506 Dudley Avenue, has returned from a ten days' visit to Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kaerber, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Staples, all of Narberth, and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wanamaker, of Merion, have returned home after spending last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. B. Humes, of Narberth Avenue, at their summer home in Cape May.

Master Billie Humes, who is spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. B. Humes, in Cape May, won last week's tournament at the Tom Thumb golf course with a score of 41.

Mr. A. Albert Blaess, son of Mr. and Mrs. August A. Blaess, of Elmwood Avenue, will leave on Friday for Eaglesmere for a ten days' stay.

Miss Marie Miesen, of Merion Avenue, is spending a week at Jeannette Farms, Mt. Cresco, in the Poconos.

Mrs. Clarence A. Speakman and her son and daughter, Edwin and Mary Speakman, are visiting Mrs. Speakman's mother, Mrs. Mary Daniel, of Gratz, Pa., for the next two weeks.

ley Avenue, is spending the month of August at Camp Moonson on the Perkiomen near Collegeville.

Miss Alice Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Edwards, of 507 Dudley Avenue, is at Camp Yakewi, near Austinsburg, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bawden and Miss Adaline Bawden, of Wynnewood and Woodside Avenues, who have been spending week-ends in Ocean City, are now occupying their apartment for a few weeks. Miss Bawden had as her guest the last week-end Lieutenant Roy Corby, of Schenectady, New York.

Miss Mary Jane Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Murray, of Dudley Avenue, who graduated from Lower Merion High School with the class of 1930, will enter Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., in the fall. Miss Murray is spending part of this summer at Camp Fernbrook, near Allentown, and visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Murray, outside of Pottstown.

Miss Julia Robison and Miss Katherine Robison, of Dudley Avenue, daughters of Mrs. G. M. Robison, left Tuesday night for Camp Fernbrook, near Allentown.

Lieutenant Commander Walter O'Sullivan, of Windsor Avenue, has just returned from a two-weeks' naval cruise to Newport, Rhode Island.

Miss Lois Rinehart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Rinehart, of South Narberth Avenue, has returned from Camp Oneka in the Poconos, where she has spent two months. Miss Harriet Marsh, formerly of Narberth, but now living in Westfield, New Jersey, was her tentmate.

Mrs. G. Howard Reese, of Hampden Avenue, entertained as her guest this past week-end Mrs. R. K. Osmond, of Concordville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Robb, of Forest Avenue, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, Margaret Barclay, on August 20.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Leonard, of Grove Place, have returned from a short visit with friends in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Mrs. J. B. Lentz, of Wynnewood Court, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Russell, are home after a two weeks' sojourn at Chesapeake Bay.

Local Trains to Use New Station

Pennsylvania Railroad to Open
Subway Terminal by End of September.

BRIDGE ALMOST READY

Main Line commuters will be leaving their trains in the new subway station on Fifteenth Street by the end of next month, according to word this week. The Pennsylvania Railroad will at that time abandon Broad Street Station for all electric trains, simply running the through steam trains out of the old station.

The new bridge over the Schuylkill, the construction of which has been watched with interest for many months by Main Liners, has been completed for some time, and the electric train tracks are about ready. Temporary tracks, on heavy wooden supports, are being laid over the electric lines to carry the steam trains over the river. These temporary tracks will connect with the present yards on the east side of the river.

Swift work has also marked the construction of the new suburban station at West Philadelphia, lying across the yards from the present sheds. The shift of the train route will be the first actual change of many to follow.

The downtown terminal is nearly completed, with entrance and exitways finished, and but a few odds and ends to be done before it is put into service.

With the abandonment of the old bridge and the final work on the new West Philadelphia terminal, the old tracks and the "Chinese Wall" will be removed. Truly the map of Philadelphia is being changed overnight!

So within a few weeks Main Line commuters must prepare to walk up instead of down when they come to the end of their ride.

Commissioners Open Roads in Township

Five ordinances opening roads and providing for the construction of curbing on them were adopted by the Lower Merion Board of Commissioners at their August meeting Wednesday night.

Ordinance No. 366 provides for the opening and making public of Woodley Road, Merion, from Hazelhurst Avenue to Bowman Avenue. Ordinance No. 367 provides for the construction and setting of curbing on both sides of Woodley Road from Bowman Avenue to Hazelhurst Avenue.

opening and making public of Dorset Lane, Rockglen Road, and Graywall Lane, in Overbrook Hills in Merion.

Sewer contracts for the laying of sewer in Academy Road, Broadacres and Clarendon Roads, and Wynnewood Road and City Line Avenue, were awarded to McCabe Brothers.

Through traffic stop signs were authorized for the following locations: Glenn Road and Mill Creek, Cherry Lane and Mill Creek, Cricket Avenue at County Line Road, and County Line Road at Ardmore Avenue.

A folk dance, "Klappdans," was presented by the senior girls of the Community Playground, followed by a health play presented by the playground children under the direction of Miss Boucher of the Inter-State Dairy Council. A great variety of races were participated in by the little children who were awarded lollipops as prizes.

The award of the two and a half dollar gold pieces to the most worthy boy and girl on the playground during the past summer was made to Ingaburg Thaysen and Sturgis Poorman. These prizes were donated by Dr. LeRoy A. King.

The handicraft prize was won by Frances Goss, with a well-made basket.

Thirty-two other prizes were distributed to the children by Mr. Stites, who represented the Recreation Board. In a brief address he outlined the history of the playground from its reclamation of five acres of waste land to its present useful and healthy condition as a great asset to the rising generation of the community.

The Recreation Board wishes to express its appreciation to the following merchants for their contributions of prizes: Alexbe Electric, A. C. Betus; Narberth Hardware Company, W. H. Haws, proprietor; Narberth Electric Shop, Walter G. Case, proprietor; Ficklin's Hardware; Shea's Drug Store; Chris Koch's Drug Store; Davis' Store; Ye Oddity Shoppe (Lacey and Nash).

A permanent trophy to be competed for annually by the teams of the Playground Baseball League, was presented by Mr. Stites on behalf of the Y. M. C. A. fund. At the present time the league winner is uncertain as Narbrook caused an upset on Tuesday by defeating the Cardinals and Midgets, the two leading teams, in a double header.

The trophy will be called "The Old 'Y' Cup" and each year the name of the winning team, together with the name of each player, will be inscribed on the cup. It will be placed in Davis' store for three weeks after the close of the playground and after this time will be placed in the Narberth Community Library.

The Volley Ball League was won by Lillian Dorsey's team with a score of 8 to 7—6 over Jeanette Murphy and Ingaburg Thaysen.

The golf tournament was won by Thomas Donahue with a score of 20 for six holes. Joe Witte was second with 22 and Rita McKeon third with 25.

The playground's boys tennis singles title was won by Harndeen, and the girls singles by Martha Smith.

The total attendance to date at both playgrounds is 9677, making an average daily attendance of 210 children.

Fire Company Meets

The regular meeting of the Narberth Fire Company, marked by the absence of the secretary, J. Frazier Purse, was held at Elm Hall on Tuesday evening. The financial secretary reported that quite a number of contributing members of the company had not yet paid their dues for the year. No new business came before the meeting.

Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ettore, of 325 Woodbine Avenue, Narberth, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, Sophia, on August 19, at the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Extinguishes Grass Fire

The Narberth Fire Company answered an alarm for a grass fire last Friday at Bowman Avenue and Baird Road, Merion. There was no damage.

Bala-Cynwyd Firemen Keep Slate Clean

Beat Ardmore Firemen 4 to 3 in Tight Game Last Tuesday.

POLICE VS. NARB. TONITE

The Bala-Cynwyd Firemen, undefeated in the second half of the Police-Firemen Baseball League, nosed out the Merion Fire Company of Ardmore, 4-3, at the Cynwyd School field on Tuesday night. This gave the Union Fire Company team their fifth straight win of the second-half series.

Cynwyd scored once in the second inning and twice in the third, but the Ardmore firemen came back strong in the fifth and tied up the score at 3 all. Neither team was able to score in the sixth, but in the seventh Bob Thomas, of the Cynwyd nine, singled, advanced to second after a bad throw by the Ardmore pitcher trying to nip him at first, and gained third by a sacrifice by Zengrel.

At this point with two out and a man on third, Frank McClatchy walked up as a pinch hitter for Slaw. When two strikes and one ball had been called on him, Bob Thomas, cooling his heels on third, decided something should be done about the situation. On the next throw Thomas started for the plate at full speed, McClatchy hit to the shortstop, who relayed the ball to first and due to an error by the Ardmore first baseman, who dropped the throw, the run counted and Cynwyd won the game.

The Police will play the Narberth Firemen at the Narberth field tonight.

Brookline Captures Playoff With Narberth

"Howdy" Powell carried the first local run over the scoring station in the opening inning, while Humphries was being run down between second and third, having been forced off the keystone by Fleck. Vernie managed to garner a hit in his final appearance to prolong his consecutive hitting games to thirty-one for the year and hold the batting lead for the second-half season by leading the pack with the excellent percentage of .511.

In the alien half of the subsequent canto the Brookline Square Club responded with a tying tally made possible by two successive errors. Not a bit aided in the scoring of this point, Sinclair raised a weak fly to Powell. MacDonald sped over first while Humphries was juggling his bouncing drive headed for the outfield and Scott fell on strikes. Cokenbach made two bases when his violent drive past Powell was fumbled by Heckle, permitting the ball to go past his guard. MacDonald counted off the blunder.

Clean-cut hitting again sent the Davismen to the front when Townsend singled to left-field and scored on Young's two-bagger to the same spot.

After holding the visitors hitless for five long sessions, Townsend gave the Brookline boys access to the scoring column in the sixth inning of the contest. A long clout into right-field followed by three successive bunted raps made possible by ineffective team-work about first base saw Charley in a quite unfavorable position. Townsend tightened up for a moment and sent over those hooks which carried with them the deadly aim of yore and fanned Sinclair. MacDonald discharged another infield bingle and Kane came over with a run. When Scott bunted, Charley relayed the ball home to force Hughes and then struck out Cokenbach, escaping from his woe with slight damage, as three men were jilted of their desire to cross the plate.

Phil Logan, the big league prospect of 1931, emulated his act of potency at bat in the previous game played at Brookline field when his former Ruthian swipe also played a prominent part in evening the play. After Hunter reached base by virtue of Powell's miscue on the sward and counted on a passed ball, Logan drove a solid swat out into the highway to score Kane ahead of him to give his teammates a well-earned victory over the champions.

Offers Scholarships

The Meyer Ten Broeck School of Music offers two scholarships for the coming winter. There will be one in piano and one in violin. Any high school pupil in Philadelphia or the suburbs may compete for these scholarships on Thursday evening, September 25, at the Upper Darby studio of the school, 102 Stonehurst Apartments, Sixty-ninth Street Centre.

Plan Bake Sale

The ladies of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church will hold a sale of home-baked articles on the lawn of Harry Walls' home on Friday, September 5. The proceeds will be devoted to furnishing the new church parlor.

Book Reviewers Meet

The Book Reviewers met at the library last Thursday morning for their regular discussion of new books. "Giants' Bread," by Mary Westmacott, the trilogy of Henry Handel Richardson; "Great Meadows," by Elizabeth Roberts, and "French Leave," by Jeannette Gibbs, were the principal topics of discussion.

This group of women is an informal group who meet at the library on the first and third Thursdays of each month to discuss the new books. Anyone who is interested is invited to attend any or all of these meetings. The next one will be held Thursday morning, September 4, at 10:30 o'clock.

Moderate Lawn Sprinkling IS NOW SAFE

Showers have abated the intensity of the drought and relieved the water supply situation.

Two weeks ago the Water Company asked all consumers to give up lawn sprinkling and restrict the use of water to actual necessities.

The response was immediate throughout all Suburban Philadelphia and the co-operation thus given prevented any shortage.

The crisis has passed and moderate lawn sprinkling is now safe.

Penshurst Farms to Distribute Own Milk

Penshurst Farms certified milk, formerly distributed by a large city dairy, will be handled in future direct from the farm, according to an announcement this week by Dr. Ezra S. Deubler, superintendent.

The farm, located in Penn Valley, north of Narberth, is one of the most famous in the country with a world-renowned herd of 225 pure-bred Ayrshire cows. The owner is Percival Roberts, Jr., of whose estate the farm is a part.

Holding license number 1 in most of the communities in this section, the farm has a record of more than forty years of milk production, being the oldest in this section. Distributors are being chosen to continue the service of Penshurst milk to present customers and others on the Main Line.

Plan Golf Tournament Here

Plans have been tentatively announced for an elimination tournament to be staged on the Narberth Country Club's 18-hole miniature golf course, commencing early next week. Prizes consisting of a golf bag, clubs and balls will be presented to man and woman with lowest scores, according to the M. R. Lane & Son management. The regular greens fee will be charged all contestants. Anyone may compete who qualifies with a preliminary round of 50 strokes or less.

Football Practice Opens

All candidates for Lower Merion Junior High School football team are requested to report at 2 o'clock, Wednesday, September 3, to Coach Mattis, of the Junior High.

MODERN GASOLINE

for Modern Motors

AT THIS MODERN SERVICE STATION

A VERY modern and pleasing-looking station" may readily be your observation when you inspect the new Mobilgas service station in your community. And you'll also be impressed by the young men who are there to serve you . . . impressed by their willingness . . . impressed by their ability. Our attendants are hand-picked and thoroughly schooled in the modern business of servicing the car you drive today.

But what about the products sold there? Of course you'll find Mobiloil, the oil you very likely use in your car. More people prefer Mobiloil than any other quality motor oil.

And Mobilgas is there, too. Mobilgas is the newest gasoline, modernized by the Vacuum Oil Company's process of distillation to fit the exacting fuel requirements of the car you drive today. Mobilgas is Vacuum's answer to the public demand for a modern gasoline for modern motors.

The new Mobilgas service station is just a few minutes' drive from your home. Why not switch to Mobilgas for a week and let your car decide?

(P.S. Vacuum had in mind the beauty of your neighborhood when building this station—even to pumps outside).

VITAL SERVICE

These services increase your driving pleasure and your car's trade-in value

Greasing. Done in roomy, lighted pits by trained men equipped with the latest tools. Parts exposed during work protected by fitted covers. Eight different greases especially refined for specific types of duty and applied according to charts authorized by motor car builders.

Washing. Modern pressure equipment used by trained men working in glass enclosed, drained and daylighted wash racks. Hydraulic jacks raise cars to convenient levels for under-gear washing.

Polishing. Soft chamois, proper cloths and complete stocks of cleaners and polishes. Daylighted and closed rooms insure against dry polish missed through reflection of artificial light.

Tightening. Thoroughly trained men with special tools working from authorized charts remove all the annoying squeaks and rattles that worry the driver and deteriorate the car.
